

Blackstone's biggest buyers

BUYER	NO. OF BUILDINGS	PRICE PAID	STATUS
Macklowe Properties	7	$6.6 billion	Flopped. Buildings were seized by the bank when billions in short-term loans came due.
Beacon Capital	42	$6.4 billion	Doing well. Sold 14 buildings in Seattle for $1.2 billion, successfully leasing much of remaining space.
Maguire Properties	41	$2.87 billion	Suffering bumpy ride. Sold eight buildings for $650 million, but is highly leveraged and pushing back debt payments.
Morgan Stanley	10	$2.65 billion	In trouble as a result of the Wall Street fallout, but sold part of 10-building package in San Francisco to the Paramount Group.

Sources: Real Capital Analytics and news reports